

Hey Matthew, is this ok? Let me know if you want me to tweak anything.

Joelle :)

I did an outdoor boudoir photo shoot with Matthew this past summer. Even though it was a more intimate photo-shoot that could potentially be intimidating doing with a male photographer, I felt very comfortable with Matthew from the beginning. He was respectful of my privacy and wanted me to be happy with the end result of the shoot.

I would recommend Matthew for this type of shoot or any other. It was a pleasure to work with him.
